Awards to Law Client Victims Now Total $209 Million

(Albany, NY-- 2/14/18) New York's legal profession, through the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection, recently awarded over $2.1 million in reimbursement to 44 law clients who lost money due to dishonest conduct by 26 former attorneys. Awards from the Lawyers' Fund since 1982 now total over $209 million.

The Lawyers' Fund is a unique law client reimbursement program financed by attorneys in New York State which reimburses law clients for financial losses caused by their attorney's dishonest conduct in the practice of law. No other profession provides such protection to its clients.

The Lawyers' Fund receives a portion of the registration fees paid by New York's attorneys. No taxpayer money is used for this client protection program. Of every dollar received by the Lawyers' Fund, over 92 cents go directly to client reimbursement.

Of the 44 awards granted by the Lawyers' Fund, 14 (32%) of the Fund's awards reimbursed the thefts of personal injury and employment settlements by two now disbarred attorneys.

The Lawyers' Fund is administered by a seven-member Board of Trustees appointed by the State Court of Appeals, New York's high court. The Trustees serve without compensation. Since 1982, the Fund has restored more than $198 million to 8,462 eligible law clients.

The Lawyers' Fund is chaired by Eric A. Seiff, a Manhattan lawyer of counsel to the law firm of Storch Amini, P.C. In announcing the awards, Mr. Seiff said:

"The theft of law client money is not only a crime but a profound violation of the trust placed in lawyers. On behalf of the 318,000 members of New York's legal profession, the Lawyers' Fund strives to restore that trust by reimbursing the financial harm caused by these few miscreants in our profession."

In addition to Mr. Seiff, the Fund's Trustees are Anthony J. Baynes of Williamsville, the founder and Chairman of the AJ Baynes Group, a Buffalo based development and logistics company;

Peter A. Bellacosa, an attorney with the Manhattan law firm of Kirkland & Ellis; Stuart M. Cohen, a sole practitioner in Rensselaer, Rensselaer County; Patricia L. Gatling, an attorney with the Manhattan law firm of Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf; Charlotte G. Holstein of Syracuse, a civic leader and founder and former Executive Director of F.O.C.U.S. Greater Syracuse; and Lisa L. Hutchinson, an attorney and partner in the Farmingdale, Nassau County, law firm of Guercio & Geurcio.

Types of losses covered by the Lawyers' Fund include a lawyer's theft of estate assets, real estate down payments, litigation settlement proceeds, and law client money embezzled in investments within an attorney-client relationship. The Fund has not authority to compensate for alleged malpractice or assist in resolving disputes over legal fees.
